MANUAL:

2. The Executive Commission;

(a) amends para 7.45-46 of the Manual to read:

“7.45 An Elder, once elected, is ordained for life and inducted to office. Ordinarily this means that an Elder remains a member of the Session to which he/she was inducted until:

- (a) he/she ceases to be a member of the Congregation;
- (b) the Session declares him/her to be no longer a member of the Session under the conditions set out in para 7.47 below;
- (c) the Session accepts his/her resignation from the Session;
- (d) he/she is removed from office under discipline;
- (e) the period for which Presbytery has appointed him/her in terms of para 7.50 has expired; or
- (f) he/she retires (see para 7.48).

7.45.1 Alternatively, a Session may limit the period for which its Elders are inducted to 3, 4 or 5 years. If a Session has decided to impose such limits, it may then also rule that after 2 or 3 consecutive periods of service an Elder must step down for at least one year, unless there are no suitable candidates to replace him/her.

7.45.2 Any Session wanting to introduce this system informs the congregation at a duly constituted Congregational meeting and in addition informs the Presbytery.

7.46 If an Elder moves to another Congregation, he/she does not thereby become a member of its Session. If nominated and elected as an Elder in that Congregation, he/she is then not re-ordained but is inducted to office in it following the normal procedures.

(b) sends these amendments to Presbyteries in terms of the Barrier Act and sets the date for returns as 31 March 2010.

3. The Executive amends para 7.56 of the Manual to read:

7.56.1 The Session considers all nominations submitted to it. If it has good reason to disapprove the nomination of any nominee, it may at this point approach the nominee to inform him/her of the reason and give him/her the option of withdrawing.

7.56.2 If a nominee whom the Session considers unsuitable for election to the eldership fails to withdraw his/her nomination when given the option to do so, the Session may, without furnishing reasons, decline to sustain the nomination. The Session Clerk then simply informs the nominee that his/her nomination has not been sustained and that the list of nominees to be put to the congregation in terms of para 7.57 will therefore not include his/her name.

7.56.3 If the Session so wishes, the Awareness Workshops referred to in para 7.58 may be arranged at this point in the procedure.

4. The Executive deletes para 7.62 of the Manual.

5. The Executive amends para 8.24 of the Manual to read:

“The period in office of a Steward is 3 years. If at any time during this period a Steward is for any reason unable to continue in service, the Stewardship Board may decide to co-opt another member of the Congregation to serve in his/her place until the next Annual Congregational Meeting. The Stewardship Board seeks the approval of the Session before co-opting the person. At the next Annual Congregational Meeting an election takes place to fill the places of

- (a) those who retired at the end of their three year period of service, and
- (b) those who were not able to continue in service.

Those elected in terms of (a) serve for a period of three years. Those elected in terms of (b) serve for the unexpired portion of the period of service of the person being replaced. Stewards are eligible for re-election for further periods of three years.”

7.3 The Session's responsibility is to see to the Congregation's spiritual well-being. It exercises oversight over the Congregation's instruction in the faith and its doctrine, life, work, witness, mission, pastoral care, fellowship, discipline and administration. It sees that regular public worship (cf. 7.2 above) is arranged and the sacraments are duly celebrated. It approves the names of those to be baptized and those to be confirmed, on the recommendation of the Minister. It also shares with the financial authority in the Congregation responsibility for the relief of the poor in the Congregation and outside it. It is accountable to the Presbytery for the discharge of its duties.

8. The Executive Commission amends para 8.16 of the Manual to read as follows:

The relevant financial authority does not administer the funds collected in the name of the Session for the relief of the poor unless the Session specifically requests it to do so. It does however, administer other funds collected, or set aside, for the poor.

9. The Executive Commission amends the first sentence in para 14.17 of the Manual to read as follows:

Any objections made are dealt with by the Presbytery before the Call is considered.

- b) amends Appendix C (1) of the Manual to read as follows:

The Presbytery of will resolve at its meeting on [day] [date] whether to proceed to the (ordination and) induction of AB, who has been called to be Minister (or Colleague or Colleague and Successor) of this Congregation. Presbytery hereby notifies the members of this Congregation that if anyone has any objections to offer to the life, conduct, character or doctrine of AB, he or she must appear before the Moderator and Clerk and two other representatives of Presbytery in the vestry of this church on [day] [date] at [time] or alternatively at the Presbytery meeting itself.
